"These auction catalogues are like art history books to me – I learn much about the high standards of jewellery-making from them."

"My trusty Canon makes a great companion on my travels."

"I tend to add quirky touches to my look for an element of surprise."

"I saw this ABS by Allen Schwartz dress on Sarah Jessica Parker and I knew I just had to have it."

"This watch was my dad's engagement present to my mum so it reminds me a lot of them."

"I love anything with a story behind it, that's why I'm an avid vintage collector."

On your bedstand?

Marley & Me by John Grogan, and a couple of jewellery auction catalogues.

Most extravagant buys?

Gemstones.

A favourite journey, and why?

Travelling by myself on study projects I like to take on. I enjoy collecting little adventures along the journey, and building a trove of memorable imprints.

A historical figure you identify with?

I admire Mother Teresa. I can't say I identify with a saint like her but I'm moved by what she stands for, and I identify with Princess Diana for all that personal drama she faced.

Great place for R&R?

Veneux-les-Sablon. It's a beautiful, idyllic town 45 minutes away from Paris. I've spent time there to do some reflecting, reading, gardening, painting, and photography. It holds a spiritual significance in my heart.

Favourite cities?

Taipei for its autumn and winter, delicious street food, friends and family, onsen spas, and its fusion of western and asian influences; Bangkok for the lifestyle, fashion, gemstones, international exposure, Buddhism, and the sales; and Paris for its Michelin-star restaurants, rich culture, and exquisite architecture.

What makes you laugh?

Watching cats – they have a sense of humour.

A favourite recent discovery?

Writing lyrics and music. One of my poems was turned into a song by a Taiwanese musician friend. I'm currently working on a timeless melody to put into the jewellery boxes for Poez Jewellery.

How will you be remembered?

Hopefully for the good things only. ■

Poesy Liang

For this talented 34-year-old architectural interior designer who designs jewellery and writes poetry, life's about the journey, never the destination.

When are you happiest?

After an incredibly productive day, winding down with a good friend over a lovely meal.

Your dream job?

A published author, painter, designer, jeweller, entrepreneur, and philanthropist.

Favourite scent?

I love neroli, along with a rather wide range of essential oils that I collect for my aromatherapy concoctions.

What's sexy?

Feminine women, cultured men, great talent, consideration, and wit.

Trademark accessory?

My annual mid-year Smythson diary.

Essential style pieces?

Shoes and jewellery.

Your fashion role model?

It's a cross between Audrey Hepburn, Coco Chanel, and Jackie O – for their elegance.

Coco Chanel

"My mom's things are passed down to me – like this beautiful evening bag."

"I have a huge collection of flats. They're just so chic and comfy!"
